

U.S. Spies Named In Turkish Senate

CPYRGHT

ISTANBUL, Turkey — Documentary evidence of U. S. espionage was read on the floor of the Turkish Senate by Sen. Tuncel Kahat. Mentioned were Edward Martin, advisor of the U.S. Embassy in Ankara, and a Col. Dixon.

Among the documents quoted was a report by a U.S. agent in Turkey that Martin sent to Dixon, which predicts a purge of army officers and civil servants.
